

Dr. Felicita Wanjiru Njuguna

Director at International Centre for Capacity Development at Kenyatta University

Excerpts

DR. FELICITA NJUGUNA is a Senior Lecturer in Education Management and Policy studies in the department of Educational Management, Policy and Curriculum Studies in Kenyatta University. She is also the director of Kenyatta University Regional Centre for Capacity Development. She worked in the Ministry of Education Headquarters for 10 years before joining the University. she was awarded a Common Wealth Scholarship to study a PhD in Social Psychology in Education in Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India and graduated in 2006. The directorate under her fulfils Kenyatta University mandate of social responsibility and accountability

Bio

Title/Qualifications: PhD.

Department: Education Management Policy and Curriculum Studies

Position: Senior Lecturer and Director, KU-RCD

Area of Specialization: Social Psychology in Education- Management

DR. FELICITA NJUGUNA is a Senior Lecturer in Education Management and Policy studies in the department of Educational Management, Policy and Curriculum Studies in Kenyatta University. She is also the director of Kenyatta University Regional Centre for Capacity Development. She worked in the Ministry of Education Headquarters for 10 years before joining the University. Her role was in managing and directing Quality Assurance Programmes all over the country especially in the area of mathematics. She worked as chair in Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) and in Kenya National Examination Council (KNEC) representing quality Assurance directorate. Dr. Njuguna rose from Inspector of Schools to Senior Assistant Director for Quality Assurance and Standards in 10 years. Before then she taught mathematics and science in various secondary schools, the last of which was Lenana for over 20 years. She trained to teach Mathematics and Physics at the then Kenya Science Teachers College (KSTC) and while teaching in Secondary Schools, she enrolled for a bachelor degree in Education Administration and Planning, graduating in 1998. Thereafter, she was awarded a Common Wealth Scholarship to study a PhD in Social Psychology in Education in Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India and graduated in 2006. The directorate under her fulfils Kenyatta University mandate of social responsibility and accountability

Conference Presentations

- Represented Africa in STEM education in a team of experts meeting in France, 2016
- “Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), Social Justice and Media”- International Multidisciplinary Conference at Ambedkar Marathwada University (BAMU) India 2017 May
- Expert consultation meeting on girls’ education in science and mathematics preparing for a state-of- the-art report. at the UNESCO headquarters, Paris- Africa Representative. March 24-25,2016
- Workshop on Strengthening monitoring and evaluation education and training in Anglophone East and Southern Africa-Nairobi 1-3 March, 2016
- Regional Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E), Theme “Africa for Results” 17-20th November, 2014: Kenya

University Training Programs Development

- 2014 Growing Leaders Program: Certificate in Leadership Development and Mentorship
Kenyatta University
- May 2014 Ministry of planning leadership Training Impact Evaluation module
- June 2012: Diploma in Educational Leadership and Management (Department of Educational Management)
- August 2012: Postgraduate Diploma in Monitoring and Evaluation- Kenyatta University.
- 28th June 2012: Masters in Monitoring and Evaluation programme Kenyatta University
School of Business Studies

